The Office of Sponsored Research

With a focus on encouraging faculty research, the Office of Sponsored Research is responsible for guiding proposal development (pre-award) and grant management (post-award).

The Office provides assistance on proposal development; the identification of external funding sources, agency requirements, and compliance issues; and the management of funded proposals.

As a unit within the Academic Vice President's Office, this Office also acts as a liaison for the John Carroll community to the Institutional Review Board for the Protection of Human Subjects and the Institutional Animal Care & Use Committee.

Applying for Grants

Grant applicants are responsible for the policies and procedures listed in the Guide to Grants and on the web at www.jcu.edu/research/submit.htm, such as:

- ~ Advance notice to department chair, dean, and the Sponsored Research office
- ~ Securing approval through the Internal Approval Form

If the proposal includes a research component or program evaluation using human subjects or animals, approval from the

No proposal should leave campus without full signatory approval.

IRB/IACUC is required prior to the start of the project; approval prior to the submission of the proposal is not required.

Post-Award Responsibilities

The awardee is responsible for post-award management, such as adhering to financial regulations of the agency and the John Carroll Business Office.
