

HIV and Drug Abuse Prevention

Research Ethics Training Institute

FORDHAM

National Institute
on Drug Abuse
The Science of Drug Abuse & Addiction

ATTENTION
EARLY-CAREER PROFESSIONALS

APPLY TO BECOME A FELLOW OF THE NIDA-FUNDED HIV & DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION RESEARCH ETHICS
TRAINING INSTITUTE

Celia B. Fisher, Ph.D.

Director & Principal Investigator (1R25DA031608-01)

- Attend two summer training institutes with fully funded travel and lodging beginning July 13 – 21, 2017 in New York City
- Receive a $20,000 grant to conduct a mentored research study that will contribute to evidence-based HIV & drug abuse research ethics practice
- Join an international network of scholars examining current challenges in HIV & drug abuse research ethics

Our fellows have published their mentored research studies in peer-reviewed journals, presented the data at national and international conferences, and incorporated it as pilot data for grant applications. To see fellows' accomplishments, please visit our website:

www.fordham.edu/ethicsinstitute

How and when to apply:

Visit our website <http://www.fordham.edu/ethicsinstitute> for the call for applications or contact Rimah Jaber at ethicsinst@fordham.edu for more information. Applications are due March 15, 2017, subject to availability of funds. Applicants will be notified of award decisions by April 26, 2017.