On February 8-9, 2018, the North Carolina Chapter of the Society of Research Administrators International (SRAI-NC) will be hosting our annual chapter meeting at the Penn Pavilion at Duke University in Durham, North Carolina. Along with a day of concurrent sessions, the Chapter is offering a prior day of engaging workshops, including a Certified Research Administrator Review Session offered by the Research Administrators Certification Council (click here to register for the CRA Review Session). We will have a networking luncheon on Friday, so you can connect with your NC Chapter colleagues.

Keynote Speaker Cindy Kiel

President of SRA International and Executive Associate Vice Chancellor for Research Administration at the University of California, Davis

As Executive Associate Vice Chancellor for Research Administration at UC Davis, Cindy Kiel provides leadership over research administration and compliance areas for the university. Cindy holds a Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Utah College Of Law and a B.A. in Political Science with an emphasis in international relations. She most recently served as Assistant Vice Chancellor for Research Services at The Washington University in St. Louis with oversight for grants and contracts, interdisciplinary research development and export controls. Preceding her work at The Washington University, she was Executive Director for Sponsored Projects at the University of Nevada. Prior to her engagement in academia, she practiced law at Utah Legal Services and the law firm of McMurray, McMurray, Dale and Parkinson in the fields of consumer protection, government records access, education law, false claims act litigation, corporate transactional work, employment law, contract breach litigation, immigration, and intellectual property infringement. Cindy is an active member in the Council on Government Relations and speaks nationally on a number of topics including: global research, research compliance, proposal development, federal contracting, subcontracts, budgeting and cost-share, negotiation tactics, export trade controls, technology transfer, and research infrastructure. She has served as a proposal reviewer for the National Institute of Health and the Department of Defense.
