DOCC PROGRAM

DIVERSE OCEAN SCIENCE COMMUNITY THROUGH COLLABORATION

DOCC is a professional learning program that prepares participants to engage in grant development which authentically considers issues around how Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) integrate into research.

DOCC also trains participants to approach NSF grant development through the lens of their respective institution and how to integrate the strengths of Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs) and Tier 1 Research Institutions (R1s) into novel NSF proposals. It also supports their continued engagement after their training is complete.

Opportunity Includes:

Access to webinars, experts, and online resources

Travel and lodging to attend a culminating IDEAS lab at CSUMB

$175 honorarium for completing the program

Access to post-DOCC travel funds to support site visits for partners to meet about new proposals developed during the IDEAS lab

ELIGIBILITY

- BE TENURE TRACK FACULTY, PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH FACULTY/STAFF, OR A SENIOR DOCTORAL STUDENT CONDUCTING OCEAN-RELATED RESEARCH AND ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN GRANT WRITING OR SPONSORED PROGRAMS/PROJECT STAFF INTERESTED IN MSI-R1 RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS
- BE BASED AT AN MSI OR R1 HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION IN THE US
