Category Status: Faculty – Non-Tenured, On Track

Unit: AGNR-UME-Montgomery

Location: Montgomery County Extension Office, 18410 Muncaster Rd, Derwood, MD 20855

Description of Unit:

University of Maryland is a land-grant institution with a three-part mission of teaching, research, and outreach. The campus is located in College Park, Maryland. University of Maryland Extension (UME) reaches all parts of Maryland with an office in 23 counties and the city of Baltimore. Maryland 4-H is the youth development program of the land grant system. This position will be responsible for the Anne Arundel County 4- H program.

The Maryland 4-H Youth Development Program provides a supportive setting for youth to reach their fullest potential. Children learn beneficial cognitive and life skills through community-focused, research-based, experiential educational programs. High quality science, civic engagement, and healthy living programs are delivered through clubs, afterschool and school programs, camps, fairs and other community partners. Youth development professionals and volunteers support youth thriving through nurturing sparks, promoting high quality experiences, and cultivating positive relationships within communities.

Purpose of the Position:

University of Maryland Extension (UME) is seeking an Extension Educator responsible for organizing, developing, implementing and evaluating educational programs for youth, families and communities. The Educator would work with volunteers and youth development agencies to provide experiential learning opportunities for youth, leading to the development of life skills for youth. The educator is also responsible for developing an active, ongoing recruitment campaign to involve new volunteers and youth. As a tenure- track faculty member, the Educator will be responsible for providing leadership to develop focused youth development programs in cooperation with colleagues across the county and Capital Maryland cluster. The faculty member will be on track for tenure and promotion to a higher rank in accordance with University policy and UME tenure guidelines within a timeframe defined.

In carrying out these duties, the educator is responsible to the 4-H Youth Development Program Leader for faculty expectations and programmatic outcomes.

Responsibilities:

- Develop, implement and evaluate a county focused 4-H youth development program in cooperation with colleagues in the programmatic cluster.
- Facilitate research-based methods to increase knowledge, leadership, and life skills in alignment with the UME Strategic Plan and 4-H Program Priorities.
- Coordinate and deliver experiential learning programs for a wide range of disciplines in areas aligning with the 4-H national priorities around science, health and civic engagement.
- Educate youth and adult volunteers on subject matter concepts.
- Manage and expand the county's 4-H club and Out of School Time programs and capacity.
- Conduct needs assessments, outreach and marketing to reach diverse audiences with equity and inclusion as foundational elements.

- Provide leadership, coordination and support for the UME adult volunteer management system, including recruitment, onboarding, training, supervision and recognition of youth and adult volunteers.
- Develop and build local partnerships that will help access and engage the growing and diverse youth population in the county.
- Cultivate good working relationships with community collaborators and partners to benefit youth. Promote positive public relations with stakeholders and the community.
- Increase resources through grants, local funding sources, collaborative and other funding proposals to support and expand 4-H youth development programs.
- Provide programmatic leadership to full and part time staff dedicated to supporting the 4-H Youth Development Program.
- Coordinate programmatic direction in concert with non-tenured faculty position(s) and staff.
- Perform teaching, scholarship, and service requirements of a faculty member of the University of Maryland. This is a tenure track position requiring documented accomplishments in the areas of research, teaching, and outreach.

Qualifications:

Minimum –

- Master's degree is required.
- Experience working with diverse youth groups and volunteers.
- Demonstrated teaching and leadership ability.
- Demonstrate successful community partnerships in support of youth.
- Evidence of ability to build UME Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Respect capacity through Extension program model.
- Good communication and computer skills.
- Must be willing to work flexible hours, with some evenings and weekends, and to travel within assigned county, administrative cluster, and state.
- Personal transportation and valid driver's license.
- This position is subject to a Criminal History Record Check. Employment is contingent upon successful completion and clearance of the Criminal History Record Check.

Preferred –

- Preferred education emphasis is in youth or child development, education, life science or related field or a similar degree emphasis in undergraduate work.
- Ph.D. preferred.
- Experience in volunteer development, youth development, program management, and grant writing and management.
- Knowledge of the educational program development process and utilization of logic models to work toward meaningful outcomes while addressing youth focused issues.
- Experience with the 4-H youth development program.
- Experience in distance and virtual education strategies.
- Demonstrated success in building collaborative relationships and community-based partnerships.
- Successful engagement with limited resource and underserved audiences.
